

1882-014 Chancery Causes: Dudley E. Dean vs. Sarah E. Dean
Lee Co.

Eads, Friar, Frier

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

To The Honorable John A. Kelley Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County

The Complaint of Dudley E. Dean who respectfully represents that heretofore he intermarried with one Sarah E. Dean, with whom he lived for several years in the confidence & relation of husband and wife.

Some time in month of July 1882, he was astonished and grieved to learn by his wife's open confession that she had been guilty of adultery by repeated acts, with a neighbor man, which confession upon further enquiry proved to be true. Your Complainant at once, separated from her, refused further to live with or recognize her as his wife and has since remained separated from her. of this ample proof will in due time be made. The object of his bill therefore is to obtain a divorce full & complete from the bonds of matrimony now existing between them to affect which he prays that his said wife Sarah E. Dean be made a party defendant to this bill & answer it, allegations upon oath, and upon a hearing, a divorce from the bonds of matrimony be granted him - and for all other just & general relief.

May such be issued.

{ In chy.

Came on this day to be heard upon the bill of the plff. and the deposition of witnesses, and was argued by counsel - on considerations of which and for reasons appearing to the court, it is adjudged ordered and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plff and defendant are dissolved and annulled and, and the plff is absolved from further obligation on account thereof. But the defendant is enjoined and inhibited from marrying again And it is ordered that the plff recover from the defendant her cash - and no further action being necessary the cause is stricken from the docket.

on the 25th day of Novr, 1882, at the Clerks' office of the Circuit Court of Lee County pursuant to the notice hereto attached, which is intended to be read as evidence in the above styled cause in behalf of the Plaintiff.

Lewis Friar a witness of Lawful age after being duly sworn deposes and says.

Question by the plffs Counsel - Do you or not, know whether, Sarah E. Dean, the wife of Dudley E. Dean has been guilty of acts of adultery?
If so how long since, such fact came to your knowledge; and has the plff.
Dudley E. Dean separated from her, and does he now live apart from her?

Answer I know that she has been guilty of acts of adultery; and that such occurred some time during the Months of last July or August

Cudley E. Dean the Plff., does not live with the Deft Sarah E. Dean and has been separated from her since about the months of July or August last.
